

KING IV™ APPLICATION REGISTER

Sun International's board steers the group ethically and effectively towards achieving our sustainable business strategy and instilling confidence in our stakeholders. The board is aided by the group's governance framework that is based on the mindful and relevant application of the King IV Code of Corporate Governance South Africa 2016 (King IV™¹) principles and practices. The company's governance framework provides a sound foundation for the implementation of King IV™ and the board applies these recommended principles to drive the company's value creation process.

The summary below outlines how Sun International applied the King IV™ principles, the outcomes thereof, and references to further information contained in our report.

PRINCIPLE 1: The governing body should lead ethically and effectively
APPLICATION: Ethics training is provided to all newly appointed directors through an induction programme and directors are kept apprised of the group's codes and policies. Directors attend various board committee meetings, which allows direct oversight of group operations. The delegated levels of authority and terms of reference relating to the committees are regularly reviewed. The board determines the group's strategic direction in support of a sustainable business and monitors management's implementation and execution thereof. The group sustainability manager continues to enhance synergies across the group in relation to health, safety, the environment and socio-economic development (SED) initiatives. The nomination committee is responsible for identifying and recommending suitable appointments to the board to ensure effective governance group-wide.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ethical and cohesive culture Effective control, compliance and accountability Responsive and transparent stakeholder engagement Legitimacy and trust 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Corporate governance report Ethics declaration Governance and sustainability Board committees and attendance
EXPLANATION: Induction and ethics training ensures directors have the necessary competence and knowledge to execute their functions and responsibilities. Committee meeting attendance ensures oversight in delivering group objectives and executing delegated powers. Committee meeting attendance is greater than 95%. This is testament to the members' commitment and purposeful oversight of the group's activities. Attendance at the board and various committee meetings are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Board: 2020: 99% (2019: 99%) Audit committee: 2020: 100% (2019: 100%) Investment: 2020: 98% (2019: 87%) Nomination committee: 2020: 100% (2019: 85%) Remuneration committee: 2020: 97% (2019: 92%) Risk committee: 2020: 100% (2019: 86%) Social and ethics committee: 2020: 96% (2019: 91%) Board members and committee members competencies in terms of collective skills (industry knowledge, experience, technical skills and governance competencies) are documented and monitored in terms of a board/committee matrix. Governance competencies are considered by the nomination committee in terms of strategy and strategic planning, policy development, financial performance, risk and compliance oversight, gaming and hospitality strategy, commercial experience, stakeholder engagement and knowledge and experience in companies with operations internationally.

PRINCIPLE 2: The governing body should govern the ethics of the organisation in a way that supports the establishment of an ethical culture
APPLICATION: The directors set the overall tone for ethical leadership of the board. The directors, together with the executive committee, are signatories to a declaration that lists their commitment to Sun International’s ethical principles. Sun International’s code of ethics and policies, as well as a dedicated ethics officer are assigned to overseeing ethics within the group. Contracts with third parties include a provision on adherence to Sun International’s code of ethics. The social and ethics committee ensures the group’s ethics are managed effectively. The group adopts a zero-tolerance approach to breaching ethical standards. <hr/> EXPLANATION: The board’s commitment to ethical practices sets the tone for the company’s ethical conduct. Sun International’s anonymous tip-offs ethics hotline is managed by Deloitte.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ethical and cohesive culture • Effective control, compliance and accountability • Responsive and transparent stakeholder engagement • Legitimacy and trust 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Code of ethics • Ethics declaration • Supplier code of conduct policy • Anti-fronting statement and policy
PRINCIPLE 3: The governing body should ensure that the organisation is and is seen to be a responsible corporate citizen
APPLICATION: Several initiatives ensure the workplace becomes more responsive to the needs of society and the environment in which the company operates. Compliance with relevant laws, including the Constitution of South Africa and the Bill of Rights is core. The SunWay project continues to promote enabling values and continues to discourage disabling ones. Despite Covid-19, the group continued to conduct training and awareness around health, safety and environmental aspects. Specific focus was placed on Covid-19 training and awareness. Several projects are in place group-wide to develop small businesses, facilitate transformation and uplift local communities. The total spend on SED initiatives over the past year was R18.8 million (2019: R25.4 million) and applied mainly to projects related to education, sports, and arts and culture. The group also invested in various CSI initiatives — both in-kind monetary and non-monetary — including donations, sponsorships and charitable givings of over R7.1 million (2019: over R3.6 million) across our South African units. This amount includes a R1.6 million education funding contribution to employees and their families. Most initiatives were related to Covid-19 relief projects in and around our communities. Supplier development and enterprise and supplier development (E&SD) spend was R30.9 million (2019: R44 million) and R6.9 million (2019: R12.3 million) respectively. The closure of our units during lockdown due to Covid-19, resulted in this decreased spend. <hr/> EXPLANATION: As a responsible corporate citizen, Sun International focuses on community upliftment through its SED, CSI and E&SD initiatives. Due to Covid-19, the group spend was impacted; however, the group adapted its SED policy to incorporate the community needs over and above the three core pillars. Additionally, Sun International is committed to supplier development and upliftment through its business development support programme.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ethical and cohesive culture • Effective control, compliance and accountability • Responsive and transparent stakeholder engagement • Performing to strategic expectation • Legitimacy and trust 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Governance and sustainability • Our people • Environmental • Health, safety and wellbeing • Socio-economic development • Enterprise and supplier development

PRINCIPLE 4: The governing body should ensure that the organisation’s core purpose, its risks and opportunities, strategy, business model, performance and sustainable development are all inseparable elements of the value creation process
APPLICATION: The board convenes an annual strategy meeting to approve the strategy and goals for each financial year and measures performance against the targets established for the comparative year. Management is responsible for implementing this strategy to achieve the desired goals and to assess and respond to any issues that may impact the group’s activities and outputs. The risk assessment and ranking methodology led by the executive team ensures that the board is apprised of the risks and opportunities facing the group and it takes an integrated approach to assessing risks and material matters. The sustainability committee assists with assessing and monitoring environmental, health and safety, SED, E&SD and B-BBEE issues, internal and external, to the business. The audit committee and board consistently monitor the going-concern status of the group. EXPLANATION: Sun International’s strategy is discussed prior to the start of the new financial year, following which an executive conference is held where senior and executive management are advised on the group’s performance over the past year and the strategy for the upcoming year. The strategy implementation is included in the key performance areas for executives to ensure the effective execution of the group’s objectives, and their individual performance is measured against the achievement of the company’s objectives. Bonuses are linked to the execution and delivery of group performance to ensure that the correct behaviour is driven group-wide, ultimately creating value for all stakeholders. Strategy sessions are held by the executive committee throughout the year at the units during July/September and by the full board during November. The risk committee continues to annually review and update the material risks specific to Sun International. The top 10 risks are discussed in detail in the risk section. In 2020, the group conducted an in-depth review of its material matters by considering specific material issues related to Sun International, its industry and other JSE listed companies. The review is done every three years to ensure the group’s material matters remains relevant. Material matters are discussed in the directors’ report, governance report and the material matters section.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Effective control, compliance and accountability • Responsive and transparent stakeholder engagement • Performing to strategic expectation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strategic objectives • Integrated annual report

PRINCIPLE 5: The governing body should ensure that reports issued by the organisation enable stakeholders to make informed assessments of the organisation's performance and its short, medium and long-term prospects
APPLICATION: Several operations issue reports to the board committees, namely the executive, risk, social and ethics, remuneration, nomination, audit and investment committees. These reports incorporate areas of the business including, inter alia, human resources, operations, finance, sustainability, procurement, compliance and B-BBEE. The committees prepare a final report, which is included in the online integrated annual report. The company issues unaudited interim results and audited consolidated financial statements for year-end results. Reports are issued as necessary to comply with legal requirements. Internal and external role players ensure the integrity of all reporting, which forms part of the integrated assurance process.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Effective control, compliance and accountability • Responsive and transparent stakeholder engagement • Performing to strategic expectation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corporate governance report • Investor presentations • Social and ethics committee report • Audit committee report • Annual statutory report
EXPLANATION: The regular tabling of reports at the various committee meetings ensures the board is aware of all developments group-wide and can track progress against established targets in the short, medium and long term. Each committee chairperson provides feedback to the board. The chairman of the social and ethics committee reports back to shareholders at each annual general meeting. This bottom-up approach is vital. The integrated annual report provides details on the operations and performance of the company over the past year and allows stakeholders to assess and gauge how value is created, preserved and/or eroded. This report sets out the group's highlights, challenges and future focus areas to provide stakeholders with a realistic view of the company.
PRINCIPLE 6: The governing body should serve as the focal point and custodian of corporate governance in the organisation
APPLICATION: A protocol guides the board in relation to obtaining external advice. The board charter guides the board in executing its duties and is revised periodically. A director's handbook guides directors on their duties under the Companies Act and King IV™. The group's memorandum of incorporation (Moi) aligns with several corporate governance practices.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ethical and cohesive culture • Effective control, compliance and accountability • Performing to strategic expectation • Legitimacy and trust 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corporate governance report • Board of directors • Board charter • Memorandum of incorporation • Committees' terms of reference
EXPLANATION: The board charter sets out the board's expectations in relation to its duties towards the group, including in Nigeria. With various directors sitting on the different committees, there is first-hand oversight on the group's activities. The external advice protocol allows the board to understand what process to follow regarding obtaining external advice, and ensures the board obtains the necessary advice and expertise in the execution of and delivery of the group's objectives. Though the board remains ultimately responsible, the committees provide focused attention on areas to ensure initiatives and projects are properly assessed and implemented. The company secretary is pivotal in ensuring good corporate governance. The board is comfortable that it has fulfilled its responsibilities in accordance with its charter and is satisfied with the strategic direction set for the group. It appropriately manages its duty, as custodian of corporate governance.

PRINCIPLE 7: The governing body should comprise the appropriate balance of knowledge, skills, experience, diversity and independence for it to discharge its governance role and responsibilities objectively and effectively
APPLICATION: The board consists of a diverse group of people in terms of gender, race, age, skills and experience. The race and gender targets for the board were reviewed to ensure that future appointments align with the group’s diversity policy on gender and race diversity, and the B-BBEE Codes. The board comprises of executive, non-executive and independent directors. The chief executive and chief financial officer are executive board members. The board includes more independent than executive or non-executive directors. EXPLANATION: The board embraces diversity by improving gender, race, age and skills representation. The variety of board member qualifications provides further assurance, that the business is considered from different perspectives to provide a holistic review of the group’s strategy. A brief CV of each director is available. The board-approved diversity policy incorporates gender, race, age and skills diversity, as required by the JSE Listings Requirements. The board and nomination committee reviews progress in respect of the diversity policy and on agreed voluntary targets and why any diversity indicators have not been met. Members of committees are carefully selected, having regard to race, gender, age and skills and experience, and the provisions of the Companies Act, the JSE Listings Requirements and good corporate governance practices. Directors’ independence is monitored in accordance with King IV™ and the JSE Listings Requirements. We believe that the board has the appropriate mix of knowledge, skills and experience, diversity and independence. The company secretary and chief financial officer are evaluated annually in terms of their skills, experience and expertise. The remuneration committee conducts annual evaluations of each executive director and prescribed officer. <table border="1" data-bbox="148 1305 868 1417"> <thead> <tr> <th></th> <th>Target</th> <th>2020</th> <th>2019</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Race</td> <td>50% black directors</td> <td>58%</td> <td>57%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Gender</td> <td>30% female directors</td> <td>33%</td> <td>29%</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>		Target	2020	2019	Race	50% black directors	58%	57%	Gender	30% female directors	33%	29%	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ethical and cohesive culture • Effective control, compliance and accountability • Responsive and transparent stakeholder engagement • Performing to strategic expectation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corporate governance report • Board of directors • Executive leadership • Board charter • Diversity policy

PRINCIPLE 8: The governing body should ensure that its arrangements for delegation within its own structure promote independent judgement, and assist with balance of power and the effective discharge of its duties
APPLICATION: There are six standing committees: nomination, audit, risk, remuneration, social and ethics, and the investment committee. Most committee members are independent non-executive directors. The executive committee has two sub-committees, the sustainability and IT governance committees. These committees comprise of senior executives and management only. The board charter and composition of the committees are determined and approved by the board. EXPLANATION: The committees are pertinent to overseeing the group’s business and its core operations. The non-executive directors are included across the various committees, with many sitting on more than one committee, to ensure that there is effective collaboration across the committees and an integrated approach is adopted in relation to the execution and evaluation of all strategic projects and plans. The committees regularly provide feedback to the board, which facilitates the execution of its responsibilities. The independent directors provide an objective assessment of the company’s projects, plans and initiatives. The composition of the board committees contributes to effective collaboration, balanced distribution of power and the board’s effectiveness in fulfilling its duties. The board and its committees’ composition are monitored in terms of King IV™ recommendations. The board and committees are compliant. While the chairman of the remuneration committee is classified as non-executive, all other committees are chaired by an independent non-executive chairman. There is a clearly defined delegation of authority matrix for all executives and senior managers of the group.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ethical and cohesive culture • Effective control, compliance and accountability • Performing to strategic expectation • Legitimacy and trust 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corporate governance report • Committees’ terms of reference
PRINCIPLE 9: The governing body should ensure that the evaluation of its own performance and that of its committees, its chair and its individual members, support continued improvement in its performance and effectiveness
APPLICATION: The board chairman, the lead independent director, board members and the board committees are evaluated every other year, and by an independent third party every six years regarding their performance, processes and procedures. The members of the board are evaluated annually by the nomination committee, and the executive directors’ performance is assessed by the remuneration committee and nomination committee by way of an annual performance review for purposes of awarding total cost of employment (TCOE) incentives and short-term incentives (STIs). Non-executive directors are evaluated by the nomination committee annually, to determine eligibility for election and re-election. The chief financial officer and company secretary are evaluated annually by the audit committee and board respectively. EXPLANATION: The evaluations assess individual and committee performance against the specific terms of reference, the board charter and best governance practices. The nomination committee annually considers the competence of the group company secretary and the audit committee annually considers the competence of the chief financial officer. As recorded in the annual financial statements, the chief financial officer and the group company secretary were declared competent and have the necessary expertise and experiences to carry out their functions and duties on behalf of the company. Bonuses and remuneration of the executive directors are linked to their performance reviews. Sun International is aware that the performance of the board, statutory and board committees is essential considering the increased focus on accountability, transparency and adding value.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ethical and cohesive culture • Effective control, compliance and accountability • Responsive and transparent stakeholder engagement • Performing to strategic expectation • Legitimacy and trust 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corporate governance report • Audit committee report • Board charter

PRINCIPLE 10: The governing body should ensure that the appointment of, and delegation to, management contribute to role clarity and the effective exercise of authority and responsibility
APPLICATION: The chief executive was appointed by the board and the nomination committee considers executive succession planning. The chief executive's performance is evaluated annually by the chairman and the remuneration committee. The board annually reviews the delegation of authority to the chief executive, who in turn delegates authority to other executives and prescribed officers. Professional governance services are provided by the group company secretary, who is evaluated annually by the nomination committee and board. Following an assessment by the nomination committee, the group company secretary has the requisite competence, qualifications and experience to carry out his duties. The board has access to governance support and guidance at all times. <hr/> EXPLANATION: The nomination committee has the experience and skills required to ensure a balanced board constitution and is most suitably placed to evaluate the executive team's performance. The chief executive's delegation of authority to the executive committee ensures the company's strategy delivery and implementation. The executive management team includes the property general managers of key units, to improve decision-making and enhance alignment with the group strategy. In 2019, the central office operating structure was revised to ensure a more efficient way of working together and serving the units. In 2020 the revised structure was implemented and includes a chief operating officer. The nomination committee evaluates the board and the company secretary. The chief executive evaluates other executives and prescribed officers. The remuneration committee evaluates the performance of executive directors and prescribed officers for TCOE and STIs. PRINCIPLE 11: The governing body should govern risk in a way that supports the organisation in setting and achieving its strategic objectives
APPLICATION: Sun International's risk methodology and risk ranking system require each division, under the direction of their respective executive, to complete a risk assessment dashboard. The results are consolidated using a formula that categorises all risks in order of importance and details actions to mitigate the risks. This risk categorisation guides the group in relation to its business operations' priorities going forward. The risk function is assisted by the audit and risk management committees. <hr/> EXPLANATION: An evaluation of risks group-wide ensure all risks and opportunities are identified and ranked, which informs the group's material matters and strategy. The risk methodology ensures each executive is assigned responsibility for a specific area and that risks are managed and mitigated. The main three key risks identified in 2020: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coronavirus (Covid-19) • Weak economic conditions • Smoking legislation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Effective control, compliance and accountability • Performing to strategic expectation • Responsive and transparent stakeholder engagement 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corporate governance report • Risk management

PRINCIPLE 16: In the execution of its governance role and responsibilities, the governing body should adopt a stakeholder-inclusive approach that balances the needs, interests and expectations of material stakeholders in the best interests of the organisation over time
APPLICATION: The risk committee reviews the stakeholder register regularly. The stakeholder register comprises, inter alia, the gambling boards, the communities, and shareholders. Engagement with stakeholders is undertaken throughout the year and material matters are reported to the board. Due to Covid-19's impact the group could not complete the new community stakeholder engagement strategy development and rollout. The group aims to complete and implement this strategy in 2021 across all local units. Procurement departments at each unit have been tasked to establish and address community concerns in respect of developing local business.
